Create a Brighter World

If you have an uncomfortable experience or dream—or one you don't understand—take it into contemplation. Begin by singing HU for a few minutes. Then rewind the dream or experience, and run it through your mind. Next, visualize a door that opens into golden sunlight. This is the Light of God.

Now take the uncomfortable experience from the darkness; take it from the silence and solitude through the open doorway where it is dissolved by the Light and Sound of God.

This exercise can get you in the habit of looking for a brighter, more creative world, where you can find more inner satisfaction. With the help of the Inner Master, the Mahanta, you are learning to take charge of your life. You are becoming the aware Soul, the creator of your own worlds.

A Lesson in Love and Attention to Detail

Doing my ECK Spiritual Exercises every day brings me a closer connection to my Inner Guide, the Mahanta. I receive inner guidance in unexpected ways and wonderful lessons in my everyday experiences.

We have a gas fireplace in our family room. Every spring I turn the gas off and I relight it in the fall. I tried several times to light the gas pilot light over the past couple of months but it refused to work. I decided to just let it go or have someone repair it, but due to the coronavirus surge at the time, repairs were delayed.

One morning as I woke up, I had the thought that there might be a battery in the switch that needed to be replaced. Here was my unexpected nudge from the Mahanta. I also decided to do a specific spiritual exercise to do everything with love for the Mahanta that day. This exercise creates everything I do to be more spiritual, positive, and uplifting. It also helps me to know that everything in my life is for my benefit and is a gift of love from the ECK (Holy Spirit).

Later in the day, I remembered the nudge to check the battery so I asked my wife if we still had the owner's manual for the fireplace to check for the battery. The manual revealed no battery but did say that for safe operation, it is important to have the decorative logs positioned properly. With love, I removed all the logs, cleaned everything with a brush and put all the logs back exactly as shown on the diagram. I carefully followed the instructions for lighting the pilot flame, paying close attention to all the details.

It came on and the fireplace operated perfectly! I knew immediately this was a gift from the Mahanta, the Inner Master. Not only did this experience demonstrate to me the importance of putting love and attention to detail in the things I do and that every encounter is for my spiritual benefit, but we were also protected from a potential catastrophe. The fireplace logs had not been positioned properly in the fireplace and an obstructed burner could have caused a fire or a gas leak. I knew the Mahanta had made sure it would not light until it was safe.

I am so grateful for the Mahanta's love and protection.

You don't necessarily say, "OK, I want to have a dream about the past." Although we do this sometimes, the teachings of ECK are more concerned with living this life today, here and now.
